MICHAEL TRACEY

So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him. Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe—the best one—and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate.

Luke 15:20-24

The Prodigal Son: Michael Tracey enjoyed every conceivable advantage in life, a loving family and private Catholic education. Whilst still a teenager he was attracted to the world and all it had to offer. Sent to prison for 3 years 11 months at the age of 19 he spent the next fifteen years on a drink and drug fuelled, death defying submersion into the Manchester underworld. Far beyond the point of no return, Michael fell to his knees and asked for just a fraction of his old life back. The Father came running with open arms and has given him more than he dreamt possible.
